

GREECE

Close to the bustling northern Greek city of Thessaloniki, the Kassandra peninsula in Halkidiki offers an unspoiled expanse of sea and sand, with stunning vistas over Mount Olympus and year-round sunshine.

STAY: A mere 45 minutes from Thessaloniki airport, Sani Resort is a haven of luxury, boasting four diversely different hotels, a picturesque central marina, 7km of beaches, three spas and more than 15 restaurants, all located within a family-owned ecological reserve. Of the four hotels on offer, the Sani Asterias Suites should be your choice if total exclusion and complete serenity are essential for you both.

However, for a livelier scene and access to a wonderful pool and top-class spa, book the wonderful Porto Sani

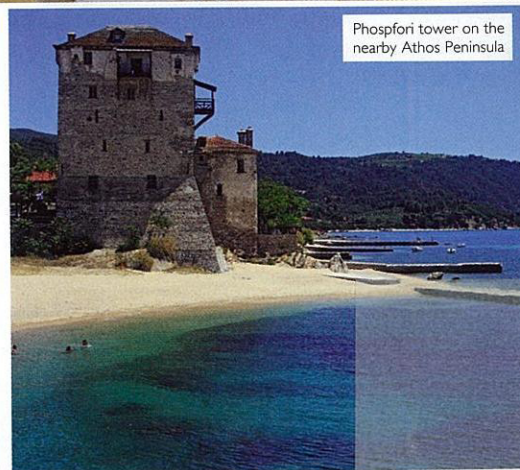

Village – an all-suite luxurious hotel, perfect for couples looking to be spoiled rotten. SEE: With so much on offer within the resort, there's really no need to leave. If you're the active type, there are a whole host of watersports, plus six floodlit tennis courts, a beach volleyball court and even a basketball court. In the evening, enjoy moonlit strolls around the bustling marina, sip fabulous cocktails on the roof terrace of the marina's Mojito bar or take in a musical at the newly opened Garden Theatre.

RELAX: There are three heavenly spas on offer at Sani Resort, all with impressive facilities and luxurious Anne Semonin treatments. For those staying in one of the Sani Asterias Suites, therapists will come to your room and transform your suite into your very own private treatment room.

EAT: The Porto Sani Village's signature restaurant Artemis not only boasts the most staggering buffet breakfast, but also a fine dining experience that would rival any Michelin-starred establishment. Guests staying on a half-board basis can also choose to eat in any of the 10 à la carte restaurants participating in the Sani Resort's 'Dine Around' scheme, for a taste of the finest Mediterranean fare.
